Product: LukaBrown Alpha IW

The product manufactured by the company mentioned above was tested by us for compostability.

The results are summarized in test report no. 3008/27 of 7 June 2018 issued by ISEGA Forschungs- und Untersuchungsgesellschaft mbH Aschaffenburg, Germany.

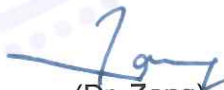

The named product meets the demands on packaging materials of the EN 13432 'Requirements for packaging recoverable through composting and biodegradation - Test scheme and evaluation criteria for the final acceptance of packaging', state of Dec. 2000, regarding chemical characteristics, disintegration and compost quality (ecotoxicity).

The product is thus regarded organically recoverable, i.e. recoverable through composting.
